| Comprehension | Read the Passage Below and answer the following questions: From the very beginning man has attempted what has seemed impossible. Man is different from the rest of the creation in this respect. He has an eternal thirst for adventure. This has led to countless new discoveries and inventions. Human curiosity is limitless. This has led to space flights and moon landings. The desire to know what is beyond the visible world takes many forms. The Everest hero Tenzing and the hero of the 'Seven Seas', Mihir Sen, were inspired by the same restless spirit. Astronauts Armstrong, Collins and Aldrin, who were the first humans to set foot on the soil of the moon, have proved beyond doubt that man shall not rest until he has conquered the entire universe. But, is it enough to know and master nature? Which is more important: knowing and understanding the world around or knowing and understanding yourself? In the absence of self-knowledge, the most advanced knowledge of the universe is not only useless but dangerous. |
