Comprehension	Read the Passage Below and answer the question below
	Most religions have a creed or a set of beliefs which are generally accepted. The believers who accept this creed are called orthodox. In the history of religions, we see that frequently there has been friction, or quarreling, between the orthodox followers and the leaders of sects, or small groups, with different beliefs. Some religions have quite split up into groups with different names – different denominations, they are called. Often the orthodox believers have endeavoured to suppress unorthodoxy by force, and sometimes after a violent upheaval, and a time of turmoil or confusion, a previous unorthodox standpoint has become a new orthodoxy; it has supplanted the previous orthodoxy, and then suppressed it in turn.
