Comprehension	Read the Passage Below and answer the questions Since the end of the last World War, the Emperor has several times rejected the suggestion that a new palace should be built for him or that his existing quarters should be suitable reconstructed. The Emperor refused to live in a luxurious palace, because millions of his people were rendered homeless during the war, their standard of living had fallen and they were subject to various kinds of hardship. The Emperor and the Empress have, therefore, continued to live in the bomb-shelter. This is hardly the place the Emperor would have chosen to live in, as the floor of the bomb-shelter is wet for most of the time. In the last few years, the economic condition of Japan has improved. The Emperor has, therefore, accepted the advice of his ministers that a palace should be built for him.
