Comprehension	Read the following passage and answer the questions below: A stout old lady was walking with her basket down the middle of a street in Petrograd to the great confusion of the traffic and with no small peril to herself. It was pointed out to her that the pavement was the place for pedestrians, but she replied: 'I'm going to walk where I like. We've got liberty now.' It did not occur to the dear old lady that if liberty entitled the pedestrian to walk down the middle of the road, then the end of such liberty would be universal chaos. Everybody would be getting in everybody else's way and nobody would get anywhere. Individual liberty would have become social anarchy. There is a danger of the world getting liberty-drunk in these days like the old lady with the basket, and it is just as well to remind ourselves of what the rule of the road means. It means that in order that the liberties of all may be preserved, the liberties of everybody must be curtailed. When the policeman, say, at Piccadilly Circus steps into the middle of the road and puts out his hand, he is the symbol not of tyranny, but of liberty.
Question Description	Read the following statements and based on the sequence in the passage arrange them in their logical order: (i) The lady walking in the middle of the street caused chaos in the traffic flow. (ii) The lady believes it was her right as she had the liberty to do so. (iii) The lady was taking a major risk to her life and limb. (iv) Apparently the lady was liberty-drunk
A	(iv)-(ii)-(i)-(iii)

B	(i)-(iii)-(iv)-(ii)
C	(ii)-(iv)-(iii)-(i)
D	(i)-(iii)-(ii)-(iv)
E	None of the above
Correct Answer	D

6	Comprehension	Read the following passage and answer the questions below:
		It is impossible to take a walk in the country with an average townsman—especially, perhaps, in April or May—without being amazed at the vast continent of his ignorance. It is impossible to take a walk in the country oneself without being amazed at the vast continent of one's own ignorance. Thousands of men and women live and die without knowing the difference between a beech and an elm, between the song of a thrush and the song of a blackbird. Probably in a modern city the man who can distinguish between a thrush's and a blackbird's song is the exception. It is not that we have not seen the birds. It is simply that we have not noticed them. We have been surrounded by birds all our lives, yet so feeble is our observation that many of us could not tell whether or not the chaffinch sings, or the colour of the cuckoo.
	Question Description	The 'a beech and an elm' stand for ----
	A	a wild tree and a song-bird
	B	a female dog and a colt
	C	two beautiful trees
	D	two indigenous song-birds
